The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 10, 11, 12, and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Elliott.

Elliott shows a tool having an elongate handle 1, the distal end thereof may be termed a substantially flat extension, a pry flap 6 is hingedly attached to the flat extension, a stop 9 holds the pry flap away from the flat extension when the tool is being pulled. Statements of intended use have not been accorded any patentable weight. In any case, the Elliott tool is considered to be capable of performing the recited intended use.

Claims 13, 14, 16, and 17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 1-9 are allowed.
